

MICHAEL J. AIELLO

Partner, Weil Gotshal & Manges LLP

Michael is a partner in the firm's New York office, and a member of the firm's Mergers & Acquisitions practice. Mr. Aiello's primary areas of practice include business combinations (mergers, acquisitions and securities) and he has counseled clients on corporate governance issues. In early 2007, Mr. Aiello rejoined Weil Gotshal, having started his legal career in 1995 as an associate of the firm.

He regularly represents acquirors, targets, buyout groups, boards of directors, special committees, investment banks, investors and shareholder groups in complex domestic and international negotiated and unsolicited transactions, including The Walt Disney Company, Sony Corporation of America, GE Commercial Finance, Actavis Group h.f., DTE Energy, Associated British Foods plc, Sumitomo Corporation of America, Sempra Energy, Credit Suisse, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners, Lazard Freres and Merrill Lynch.

Mr. Aiello has counseled clients on a broad range of corporate, securities and business-related matters, including directors' duties and responsibilities and other aspects of corporate governance, disclosure issues and compliance matters, as well as defensive measures and takeover tactics.

Mr. Aiello has authored several articles discussing the fiduciary duties of corporate directors and officers, recent developments in the areas of mergers and acquisitions and corporate compliance matters, including Sarbanes-Oxley and the related rules adopted by the SEC and the securities exchanges, and is a frequent lecturer in these areas.

A graduate of Widener University School of Law and New York University, Mr. Aiello is admitted to practice in New York.
